INDEX

—A —

Accreditation agencies and International Technology Education Association, 547
Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology (ABET), 4, 82–83, 83, 85, 87–88
Action, relationship of thought to, 158–60
Action plans, formats for, in technology education, 404–7
Action practices of leaders, 517
Affective learning, 427
Africa, technology education in, 487–88
American Association for Secondary Administrators (AASA), 550
American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS), 550
  and International Technology Education Association, 555
  on a liberal education, 130–31
  and Project 2061, 123, 180–81, 349–50
American Chemical Society (ACS), 96, 550
American Concrete Institute (ACI), 96
American Council on Industrial Arts Teacher Education (ACIATE), 571
American Home Economics Association, 43
American Industrial Arts Association (AIAA), 27, 543, 571. See also International Technology Education Association
American Industrial Arts College Student Association (AIACSA), 582. See also Technology Education Collegiate Association
American Industry Project
  and curriculum development, 255–56
  and manufacturing technology education, 327–28
  and transportation technology education, 349
American Institute of Chemical Engineers (AICE), 95
American Institute of Electrical Engineers (AIEE), 95, 96
American Institute of Mining Engineers (AIME), 96
American Institute of Plant Engineers (AIPE), 13
American Society for Engineering Education (ASEE), 96, 99–103, 550
American Society of Association Executives, 549
American Society of Civil Engineering (ASCE), 95, 96
American Society of Engineering Education (ASEE)
  in defining engineering technology, 72–74
  Technical Institute Division of, 80–82
American Society of Mechanical Engineers (ASME), 95, 96
American Society of Refrigeration Engineers (ASRE), 96
American Vocational Association (AVA), 42–43
  in defining vocational education, 35–36
  origin of, 43
  and teacher certification, 50
Analysis in the cognitive domain, 430
Appalachian Technology Education Consortium (ATEC), on transportation technology education, 359

INDEX

—A —

Accreditation agencies and International Technology Education Association, 547
Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology (ABET), 4, 82–83, 83, 85, 87–88
Action, relationship of thought to, 158–60
Action plans, formats for, in technology education, 404–7
Action practices of leaders, 517
Affective learning, 427
Africa, technology education in, 487–88
American Association for Secondary Administrators (AASA), 550
American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS), 550
  and International Technology Education Association, 555
  on a liberal education, 130–31
  and Project 2061, 123, 180–81, 349–50
American Chemical Society (ACS), 96, 550
American Concrete Institute (ACI), 96
American Council on Industrial Arts Teacher Education (ACIATE), 571
American Home Economics Association, 43
American Industrial Arts Association (AIAA), 27, 543, 571. See also International Technology Education Association
American Industrial Arts College Student Association (AIACSA), 582. See also Technology Education Collegiate Association
American Industry Project
  and curriculum development, 255–56
  and manufacturing technology education, 327–28
  and transportation technology education, 349
American Institute of Chemical Engineers (AICE), 95
American Institute of Electrical Engineers (AIEE), 95, 96
American Institute of Mining Engineers (AIME), 96
American Institute of Plant Engineers (AIPE), 13
American Society for Engineering Education (ASEE), 96, 99–103, 550
American Society of Association Executives, 549
American Society of Civil Engineering (ASCE), 95, 96
American Society of Engineering Education (ASEE)
  in defining engineering technology, 72–74
  Technical Institute Division of, 80–82
American Society of Mechanical Engineers (ASME), 95, 96
American Society of Refrigeration Engineers (ASRE), 96
American Vocational Association (AVA), 42–43
  in defining vocational education, 35–36
  origin of, 43
  and teacher certification, 50
Analysis in the cognitive domain, 430
Appalachian Technology Education Consortium (ATEC), on transportation technology education, 359

Application in the cognitive domain, 430
Applications-based instruction, 393–94
Associated General Contractors of America (AGC), 13
Association for Production and Inventory Control (APICS), 13 Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development, 550 Australia
  Council for Education in Technology in, 551 technology education in, 481, 488
Automobile on Trial, 357

—B—

Back-to-basics movement, 417
Baldridge, Malcolm, Quality Program, role of, in monitoring quality, 5
"Bannister Report," 63
Biological Science Curriculum Study, 187
Bloom's Taxonomy, 427–28
Built environment, definition of, 369

—C—

Car Builder (C) software, 356
Certificate of Advanced Graduate Studies (C.A.G.S.), 453 Certification issues, 468–69
Certified Industrial Technologists (CIT), 72
Certified Senior Industrial Technologist (CSIT), 72 Change
  definition of, 400
  and leadership, 531–32
Chaos theory and research, 173
  and technology, 164–65
Citizens, liberal educational needs of, 141–42
Cognitive learning, 427
College level. See also Undergraduate technology education technology as liberal arts at, 123–27
Commission on National Aid to Vocational Education (1914), 42
Commission on Standards for School Mathematics, and curriculum integration, 182–84
Communication, and International Technology Education Association, 558–60 Communication process
  definition of, 288
  models of, 289
Communications Systems Technology (Utah), 305 Communication system
  definition of, 288–89
  models of, 290
Communication technology education, 287–318 content organization in, 293, 296 curriculums in, 301–2
  definition of, 288
  evolution of, 292–93
  facilities in, 316–17
  future of, 313–18
  historical transitions in curriculum for, 296–300 integration of, in curriculum, 302 recent curriculum activities, 300–301 state approaches to, 303–12
  status of, 300–312
  teacher preparation programs in, 313–16 terminology in, 288–92
Composite Model of Communication Technology, 289, 290
Comprehension in the cognitive domain, 429
Conceptual Framework for Technology education, A, 269, 338
Conceptual teaching approach, 434–35
Construction
  definition of, 370–73
  future of industry, 388–89
Construction Industry Workforce Foundation (CIWF) on construction technology education, 389–90

Construction project originator of, 372
scale of, 371
Construction system, 372–73
Construction technology, definition of, 372 Construction technology education, 369–94 conceptual framework in, 376 curriculum activities in, 375 definitions in, 370–73
future for, 388–94
historical antecedents of, 373–75 project delivery process in, 376–78 in schools, 378–80
state approaches to, 380–87
in Illinois, 383, 385
in Indiana, 381
in Mid-America states, 381–82
in Minnesota, 386–87
in Texas, 382–83
in Virginia, 385–86
technological actions approach to, 376
Content-centered approach to technology education, 408
Cooperative and group interaction delivery system, 436–37
Copyrights, 5
Council for Basic Education, 550
Council of Post-Secondary Accreditation (COPA), 64 Council of Technology Education Associations (CTEA), 570–71 Council on Technology Teacher Education (CTTE) in defining curriculum components, 30–32 future directions of, 575–76
influence of, on policy making, 574–75 leadership in, 529–30
major accomplishments of, 572–74
mission and goals of, 572
monographs of, 612–13
publications programs of, 613–15 purposes of, 571
and technology education accreditation standards, 573–74 and technology education leadership, 505, 534
on transportation technology education, 362 yearbooks of, 574, 609–10 review of leadership studies in, 525–26 Craft Design and Technology (CDT), 270 Curriculum
evaluation of, 417–18
preparing teachers for new, 413–16 scope and sequence of, 410–11
writing of, 411–13
Curriculum development, 410–13 systems models in, 276–80
in technology education, 254–56
vision in, 402–4
Curriculum integration funded projects in, 197 implications of, for teacher education, 200–207 recent models of, 196
research with implications for, of technology, science, and mathematics, 185–95 and U.S. Department of Education, 197–200 Curriculum team, goals and characteristics of, 402
Czech Republic, technology education in, 487

—D—

Delivery systems, 436–39. See also Instructional strategies cooperative and group interaction in, 436–37
definition of, 423
inquiry learning in, 438–39 models, games, and simulation in, 437–38
Design and Technology (D&T) curriculum in Great Britain and Wales, 18, 270–72, 410
Design-based technology programs of the United Kingdom, 18 Developing-producing-using-assessing approach to technology education, 409 Doctoral programs, 454–55

Doctor of Industrial Technology (D.I.T.), 453, 455

—E —

Earth Science Curriculum Project, 187
Edison Electric Institute, 550 Education
back-to-basics movement in, 417 as fundamental activity, 399 shortcomings of, 167 structure of, 168
team concept in, 400–402
Education, U.S. Department of, and curriculum integration, 197–200
Educational Amendments of 1974, 46
Educational Amendments of 1976, 46 Educational reform
in information age, 251–54 and technology teacher education, 466–67 Educational Specialist (Ed.S), 453
Educational technology, distinguishing between technology education and, 228
Educational Testing Services (ETS), 467 Elementary school
funded curriculum integration projects in, 198
transportation technology education at, 357–58
Empowerment, 506
Energy, U.S. Department of, and International Technology Education Association, 555 Engineering
administering programs in, 107–8 advanced degrees, associations, and certifications in, 109–11 curriculum components in, 105–7
definition of, 91–92
goals of, 104–5
and technology, 3–4
typical careers in, 109
Engineering Accreditation Commission (EAC), 105
Engineering College Research Association, 99
Engineering Concepts Curriculum Project (ECCP), 122
Engineering Technology Council, in defining engineering technology, 72–73 Engineering technology education administering programs in, 89–90
advanced study, associations, and certification in, 90–91
curriculum components in, 87–89
definition of, 72–74
history of, 75–77, 92–104
international students in, 102–3 principles of, 85–87
research in, 103
typical careers in, 90
Engineers' Council for Professional Development (ECPD), 58, 62, 83, 84, 98
Engineering Technology Council of, 85–87
Evaluation
in cognitive domain, 430
in implementation of technology education, 417–18

—F —

Facility. See Laboratory facilities; Technology education facilities Faculty development role of professional organizations in, 134 techniques of, in integration of liberal arts and technology education, 133 Federal Board of Vocational Education, major functions of, 42
Finland, technology education in, 485
The Forum Corporation, 517
Foundation for Technology Education and International Technology Education Association, 564–65

Futuring teaching approach, 435–36

—G —

Games as delivery system, 437–38
George-Barden Act (1946), 43
George-Dean Act (1936), 42
George-Elizey Act (1934), 42
George-Reed Act (1929), 42
Germany, technology education in, 485
Goldratt Institute, role of, in monitoring quality, 5 Governmental relations, and the International Technology Education Association, 548
Graduate Record Examination (GRE), 453 Graduate technology education. See also Undergraduate technology education conventional programs in, 451–55 degree programs in development of, 445–47
    rational for, 444–45
  future directions and expectations in, 470–71 new models for programs in, 456–57 program identification and comparisons, 447–49
Great Britain
  British School Technology (BST) in, 483
  Craft, Design, and Technology (CDT) program in, 483, 485
  Design and technology (D&T) curriculum in, 18, 270–72, 410
  Microelectronics For All (MFA) in, 483
  National Curriculum in, 483–95, 494 Project Technology in, 483
  technology education in, 253, 270–72, 480, 492
Greece, Technology Education Association in, 551 Guide to Funding for Technology Education, 317

—H —

Hands-on activities versus hands-on technology, 185–87 and mathematics research, 189–91 and science research, 187–89 technology education research relating to, 191–95 Hands-on technology versus hands-on science, 185–87 High schools
  funded curriculum integration projects in, 199–200
  transportation technology education at, 359–61
Human adaptive systems and domains of knowledge, 10–13
Humanistic-Social Science Research Project, 101 Humanities
  as ally of technology, 168–69
  definition of, 157–58, 165
  as inquiry and reflection, 166 integration of technology into, 153–76 chaos theory in, 164–65 educational implications, 166–69 historical background, 160–64 need for research in, 172–74 relationship of thought to action, 158–60 tools in, 155–57
Human potential, extension of, 7

—I —

Illumination Engineering Society, 96
Industrial arts. See also Industrial technology education
  and technology, 3
Industrial Arts Curriculum Project (IACP)
  and construction technology education, 374
  and curriculum development, 255–56, 256
  and manufacturing technology education, 327, 328–29
  and transportation technology education, 349
Industrial Arts Teacher, 545 Industrial Revolution

and curriculum development, 247–48
and technology, 167–68
and thought and action, 162–63 Industrial technology education, 608 administering programs in, 70–71 advanced study, associations, and certifications in, 72 certification in, 50
curriculum components in, 68–70
definition of, 37–38, 54–55
evolution of, 38–40
goals for, 67–68
history of, 55–67
scope and sequence of, 52–54
typical careers in, 71
Industrial Technology Orientation Curriculum Guide (ITOCG) (Illinois), 303–4 Industry and Technology Education project, 259–62 Influence, 426
Information age, and curriculum development, 248
Inquiry learning as delivery system, 438
Inservice training, 439–40, 460
Institution
definition of, 153
technology as, 153–55
Instructional strategies, 421–40. See also Delivery systems conceptual approach in, 434–35
definition of, 422
futuring approach in, 435–36 and higher order thinking skills, 427–31 interdisciplinary approach in, 433 issues and future considerations in, 439–40 and learning, 392
social/cultural/environmental approach in, 433–34 student needs and motivations in, 423–27 systems approach in, 432–33 Integrated Mathematics, Science, and Technology Project (IMaST), 182, 199 Integrated Paradigm Model, 460
Integration, opportunities for, 18–19
Interactive model, multi-dimensions of, 11–12 Interdisciplinary instruction, 433. See also Curriculum integration current notions of, 195–96
Interdisciplinary Technology Program, 458
International Congress of Engineering, 96 International technology education curriculum thrusts in, 494–95
future directions for, 497
goals and trends in, 493–94 impacts and influences on, 495–96 organizations in, 491–93, 496, 550–51 resource utilization in, 496 International Technology Education Association (ITEA), 27, 543–65 and accreditation agencies, 547 affiliation process of, 569–70 annual conference of, 570 anticipated future directions of, 578 Board of Directors to, 544 change of name of American Industrial Arts Association (AIAA) to, 234–35 and communication, 558–60 Council of Supervisors of, 33, 57, 576
future directions for, 578 influence on policy making, 578
major accomplishments of, 577–78
mission and purposes of, 576–77
culture of, 548–52
in defining technology education, 14
Distinguished Technology Educator (DTE) program of, 551 evolution of leadership in, 545–47 and Foundation for Technology Education, 564–65 governmental relations programs for, 548, 557–58
on implementation of technology education, 408
influence of, on policy making, 578

International Technology Education Association (ITEA) (cont.)
on integration of liberal arts and technology education, 128, 131–33 and international technology education, 480
involvement of, in technology education, 491, 496
and Jackson's Mill Industrial Arts Symposium, 547 leadership of, 543–48
major accomplishments of, 577–78
major functions of, 555–60 membership activities of, 548 membership structure of, 558
mission and purposes of, 576–77
and outside groups, 549–52 personal stands in, 544 philosophical documents of, 547 positioning of, 552–55
professional development role of, 556–57 Professional Improvement Plan of, 549, 569 publications of, 545, 547, 556–57, 559 relationship between affiliated councils and, 569 special benefits of membership in, 560 and standards for technology education, 547 subgroups of, 561–63
and Technology Education Advisory Council (TEAC), 563–64
and technology education leadership, 505, 509, 524–25, 530, 534
Inventors and Designers Education Association (IDEA), role of, in monitoring quality, 5
The Invisible College, 161
ISO 9000, role of, in monitoring quality, 5

—J—

Jackson's Mill Industrial Arts Curriculum Theory, 11 and construction technology education, 375
in defining technology education, 14
on implementation of technology education, 409 and industrial arts, 27
Industrial Arts Curriculum Symposium, 257–66
and international technology education, 480 and International Technology Education Association, 547
key points of, 259
and manufacturing technology education, 323
and publication of CTTE yearbooks, 574 significance of, 615
and transportation technology education, 349–50, 351, 362
Jackson's Mill Industrial Arts Curriculum Theory project and communication technology education, 298 follow-up on, 12
results of, 11
and technology education facilities, 234
Japan, technology education in, 488, 489
Job Competence Assessment Model of leadership, 518
Journal of Epsilon Pi Tau, 596–97
Journal of Industrial Teacher Education, 600–602
Journal of Industrial Technology, 66
Journal of Technology and Society, 597–98
Journal of Technology Education, 598–600
Junior Engineering Technical Society (JETS), in defining engineering technology, 73
Junior Engineering Technical Society (JETS), manufacturing education projects funded by, 329–30

—K—

Knowledge
in cognitive domain, 429
domains of, and human adaptive systems, 10–13

Knowledge base, shift of, 142

—L —

Laboratory facilities accommodation of instructor in, 226 changing role of schools in, 226 and curriculum influences, 234–36 existing, 237–38
  functions of, 239–40
  future of, 241–43
  growth and development of, during 1980s and 1990s, 234–37
  and learning effectiveness, 241 objectives of design of, 223–24 philosophy of design and development of, 226–27 physical learning environment of, 224–25 planning and organization of, 229–34 role of, 222–29
  and teaching effectiveness, 240–41 and teaching influences, 236–37
  in technology education, 239
  and technology influences, 236 types of, 227–29
Leaders
  ability of, to accomplish change, 516 action practices of, 517
  definition of, 515
  qualities of, 516
  strategies of, 516
Leadership. See also Technology education leadership and change, 531–32
  common qualities of, 513 and Council on Technology Teacher Education, 529–30
  definition of, 503, 510–13
  development models in technology education, 530–31 future of for technology education, 529–30 keys to effectiveness in, 513–22 needed research in, 533–35
  need for, 504–5
  power of, 505–7
  principles of, 527–29
  purpose of, 507–9
  styles of, 519–21
  survey of, 523–25
  and teaching, 509–10
  in technology education, 523–26
  visioning in, 521–22
  who participates in, 509–10
Leadership Practices Inventory in measuring leadership, 515
Learning effectiveness, and laboratory facilities, 241
Least Preferred Coop-Work Scale in measuring leadership, 520 Liberal arts
  definition of, 120
  integration of technology into, 119–47
    activities in, 145
    approaches to, 130–36
    challenges for, 136–41
    at college level, 123–27 current status of public school programs, 122–23 definitions for, 119–21
    future directions for, 141–45 historical antecedents, 121–30 implications for future of, 143–44
    New Liberal Arts program in, 126–27 resources for teaching, 145–47 secondary school programs for, 122 role of, in 20th Century, 120 Liberal education. See also Liberal arts
  definition of, 120–21
  purpose of, 120
  tools of technologist in, 140–41
Liberal educational needs of citizens, 141–42
Linear Model of Communication Technology, 289 Literacy
  advances in, 153–54
  definition of, 121
  technological, 10
Logos, 5

—M —

Machines as distinct from tools, 171
Management clusters, 518

Managerial grid in measuring leadership, 520
Manipulative activities, 189–91
"Man-Made World, The" (TMMW) course, 122, 123
Man/Society/Technology, 545 Manufacturing facets of, 323
  in technology education, 327–30
    status of, 330–37
Manufacturing forum, 607–8
Manufacturing technology, 324–26
Manufacturing technology education, 323–40 future directions in, 337–39 manufacturing technology in, 324–26
  status of, 330–37
Maryland Plan, 18
Master's degree programs, 453–54
Mathematics, integration of, into technology education, 179–211
Mathematics education community, and curriculum integration, 182–84
Mathematics research, and hands-on manipulative activities, 189–91
Mathematics teacher education, and curriculum integration, 203–4
Michigan High School Curriculum Guide, 310, 312
Mid-America Vocational Curriculum Consortium (MAVCC), 381–82 Middle schools
  funded curriculum integration projects, 198–99
  transportation technology education at, 358–59
Miller's Analogies Test (MAT), 453
Models as delivery system, 437–38
Morrill Act (1862), 39, 41, 251
Motivation of students, 423–27

—N—

National Action Agenda for Engineering Education, 103–4
National Aeronautical and Space Administration and International Technology Education Association, 555
National Association of Industrial and Technical Teacher Education (NAITTE), 52 National Association of Industrial Technology (NAIT), 13, 60–68, 72 accreditation guidelines of, 55, 61–62 and engineering profession, 62–64
  goals of, 67–68
  recent undertakings of, 65–67
National Association of Manufacturers (NAM), 41
National Association of Secondary School Principles (NAESP), 550
National Board of Professional Teaching Standards (NBPTS), 467–68
National Center for Manufacturing Sciences (NCMS), manufacturing education projects funded by, 329
National Commission on Accrediting (NCA), 62, 64
National Commission on Excellence in Education, 252 National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE) and communications technology education, 301 in developing curriculum components, 30–32 on know-do-teach needs of technology teachers, 414, 415
National Council for Manufacturing Sciences, 550 National Council for Teachers of Mathematics, 550
National Council of Technical Schools (NCTS), 83–84
National Curriculum Council on development of curriculum, 410–11
National Defense Education Act (NDEA) (1958), 44, 251
National Household Economics Association, 41
National Industrial Arts Advisory Council, 553

National Institute of Education, responsibilities of, 46
National Institute of Standards and Technology, role of, in monitoring quality, 5
National School Boards Association (NSBA), 550
National Science Foundation and International Technology Education Association, 555 National Science Teachers Association (NSTA), 550 on basing curriculum on facts, 411–13 on science curriculum, 253
National Society for the Promotion of Industrial Education (NSPIE), 41–42
National Society of Vocational Education (NSVE), 42–43
National Vocational Guidance Association, 43 Nation at Risk, A, 252
Netherlands
  Pupils Attitudes Towards Technology in, 551 technology education in, 492
New course development, 131–33
New liberal arts, 126–27
New York Science, Technology, and Society Education Project (NYS_2TEP), 123

—O—

Ohio Model Schools Project, 267–69
Organization for Economic Co-Operative Development (OECD), involvement of, in technology education, 491

—P—

Patent Office, U.S., role of, in monitoring quality, 5 Patents, 5
Perkins, Carl D., Vocational Education Act (1984), 46 amendments to, 46–47
Personal Best Questionnaire, results of, in measuring leadership, 514–15
Phi Delta Kappa, 550
Physical learning environment of laboratory facilities, 224–25
Physical Science Curriculum Committee, 187 Phys-Ma-Tech, 182, 199–200 instrumental materials for, 361
Planning in technology education implementation, 404–7
Portugal, Technology Education Association in, 551
Post-baccalaureate degree certification model, 458
PRAXIS, 467
Process-centered approach to technology education, 408–9 Professional organizations. See also specific organization activities of, 80–83
  and faculty development, 134 Project 2061
  and curriculum development, 273
  and nature of technology, 9–10 and science education, 180–81 and technological literacy programs, 123
  and transportation technology education, 349–50
Project delivery process, 376–78
Project Update, 182
Psychomotor learning, definition of, 427
Public schools, technological literacy programs in, 122–23 Pupils' Attitude Toward Technology (PATT) project, 490, 496

—R—

Research
  challenge of, to curriculum integration, 207–9 and chaos theory, 173
  on curriculum integration of technology, science, and mathematics, 185–95 emphasis on, 103

Research (cont.)
and hands-on science activities, 187–89 on improving instructional strategies, 439–40 need for, in technology education, 172–74 Royal Society of London for the Promotion of Natural Knowledge, 161–62

—S —

SCHOOL SHOP/tech directions, 606–7 Science
integration of, into technology education, 179–211 relationship between technology and, 2–3
Science, Technology, and Society (STS) programs, 122–26, 196, 205 National Science Teachers Association endorsement of approach in, 137 and new course development, 131, 132, 133 primary goal of, 125
and science education community, 180–82 and Vietnam War era, 124
Science education community, and curriculum integration, 180–82
Science for all Americans, 180–81
Science Mathematics and Technology model, 460
Science teacher education, and curriculum integration, 203–4
Scope, Sequence, and Coordination of Secondary School Science (SS&C) Project, 181
Scotland, technology education in, 486
Secondary school programs for technological literacy, 122
Self-destructiveness of power, 506–7
Self-extension, 426
Simulation as delivery system, 437–38
Situational leadership theory, 520
Sloan, Alfred P., Foundation, on New Liberal Arts, 126–27
Sloyd, 492
Smith-Hughes Act (1917), 41, 42, 45
Social/cultural/environmental teaching approach, 433–34
Society for Heating and Ventilation (SHV), 96
Society for the Promotion of Engineering Education (SPEE), 96, 97, 98, 99
Society of Automotive Engineers (SAE), 13, 96, 550 Society of Manufacturing Engineers (SME), 13, 550 manufacturing education projects funded by, 329 Specialist degrees, 453–54
Standards for technology education and International Technology Education Association, 547
Stanley Tools Mass Production Contest, 329
Student associations of the technology education profession, 581–88
Student development techniques in integrating liberal arts and technology education, 135–36
Subcommittee on Technical Institutes, 83
Sustenance, 425–27
Sweden, technology education in, 485–96
Symbols
definition of, 156–57
separation of, from tools, 164 and technology education, 170
Synthesis in the cognitive domain, 430 Systems models
for assessing technology, 279–80
and curriculum development, 276–80
in producing technology, 277–78
in using technology, 279 Systems paradigm, 132
Systems teaching approach, 432–33

—T —

Taiwan, technology education in, 488, 490 TARGETS (Teaching Activity and Resource Guide for Education of Technology), 360–61 Teacher education. See Technology teacher education Teaching approaches, 432–36. See also Delivery systems; Instructional strategies; Technology teacher education

definition of, 423
Teaching effectiveness, and laboratory facilities, 240–41
Teaching Integrated Math and Science Project (TIMS), 196 Team concept in education, 400–402
Tech directions, 606–7
Technical credit, 469
Technical education, association of, with post-secondary programs, 36–37 Technical Foundation of America, 550 and funding of Industry and Technology Education project, 259, 262, 269 on international technology education, 496 publication support by, 615–16 role of, in curriculum development, 235–36 Technical Institute Division, 83
Technological actions approach, 28 in assessing technology, 279–80
and construction technology education, 376 as curriculum organizer, 274–75 and developing technology, 276–77 phases of, 275
and producing technology, 277
using technology, 279
Technological literacy, 10, 482 current status of programs in public school, 122–23
definition of, 121, 138–40
forerunners of, 122
international impacts and influences on, 495–96
as primary goal of, 125 versus technology as curriculum organizer, 138–40 Technological method model of, 12–13
versus scientific method, 141
Technological problem solving and transportation technology education, 356–57
Technologist, tools of, for liberally education person, 140–41 Technology
as ally of humanities, 168–69
and chaos theory, 164–65 characteristics of, 6–9
definition of, 1–3, 119, 272–73, 481
definitions of, global, 479–83 and design, 18
disciplines of, 3–4
history of, 6
and the humanities. See Humanities as a humanity, 165–72
impacts of, 8, 132
incorporation of, into educational system, 169–71 individual and collective forces behind, 9–10 and Industrial Revolution, 167–68
as institution, 154–55
interdisciplinary nature of, 130–31 and liberal education. See Liberal arts nature of, 9–10
new course development in, 131–33 process of, 4–5
relationship between science and, 2–3 relationship between tools and, 155–57 role of people in creating, 7–8 versus technological literacy as curriculum organizer, 138–40 universal attributes of, 28 and values, 8–9
Technology, Science, Math Integration Project, 182 Technology Accreditation Commission (TAC), 83 Technology education behavior-of-learners approach to, 16 challenges for, in integrating liberal arts, 136–41 clientele of, 464–65

Technology education (cont.)
communication technology in, 293–300 concepts-of-technology approach to, 16–17 conceptual framework for, 376 content-centered approach to, 408 curriculum development in, 247–81
definition of, 13–14, 27–29, 119–20 delivery systems in cooperative and group interaction in defining, 423
inquiry learning, 438–39 models, games, and simulation, 437–38 developing-producing-using-assessing approach to, 409 distinguishing between educational technology and, 228 and educational reform, 251–54 versus educational technology, 481 emerging models in, 455–60 future challenges to, 142–43
future of, 14, 273–74
goals of, 29–30, 266
in Great Britain, 270
history of, 27–29
implementation of, 399–418
developing curriculum, 410–13
evaluation, 417–18
fundamentals of change in, 400–407
in-service teacher education for, 414–16 missions and goals of, 407–10 planning in, 404–7
preparing teachers for new curriculums, 413–16 pre-service teacher education for, 413–14 scope and sequence in, 410–11
team concept in, 400–402
vision in, 402–4
instructional strategies for, 421–40 conceptual approach to, 434–35 defining teaching approaches in, 423 futuring approach to, 435–36 higher order thinking skills in, 427–31 interdisciplinary approach to, 433 social/cultural/environmental approach to, 433–34 students' needs and motivation in, 423–27 systems approach to, 432–33
integration of science and mathematics into, 179–211 international curriculum thrusts in, 494–95
definitions in, 479–783
development of, 483–90
events in, 490–91
future of, 497
global influence on, 479–97
goals and trends in, 493–94 organizational structures in, 491–93 organization involvement in, 496 resource utilization to support, 496 issues and questions facing, 460, 463–69 laboratory facilities in, 239
and leadership, 523–26
manufacturing in, 327–30
mission of, 463–64
name of, 266–69
need for research in, 172–74
opportunities for integration in, 18–19 perceptions of, 28–29
planning in implementation of, 404–7 primacy program approaches to, 16 process-centered approach to, 408–9 professional publications in, 595–618 rationale for, 14–16
relationship between vocational education and, 408 role of, in liberal arts, 127–30
scope and sequence of, 33–35 symposia proceedings in, 610–12

systems approach to, 18
textbooks in, 616–17
typical careers in, 33
undergraduate and graduate programs conventional graduate programs, 451–55 conventional undergraduate teacher preparation models, 449–51 degree structures and certification, 450–51
development of, 445–47
emerging models in, 455–60
future directions and expectations, 470–71
issues and questions facing, 460, 463–69
program identification and comparison, 447–49
rationale for, 444–45
Technology Education: A Description and Listing of Programs in Oklahoma (Oklahoma), 310 Technology Education: Introduction to Technology (New York), 309 Technology Education Act (1990), 185 Technology Education Advisory Council (TEAC)
and International Technology Education Association, 563–64
on transportation technology education, 357, 359
Technology Education Collegiate Association (TECA), 582
future directions of, 584
and inclusion of manufacturing in curriculum, 329
influence of, on policy making, 584
major accomplishments of, 583–84
mission and purposes of, 582–83
Technology education community, and curriculum integration, 184–85
Technology Education Curriculum Guide (New Hampshire), 306–8 Technology education facilities, 221–43 analyzing and evaluating current and future needs in, 230 educational policies, beliefs and laboratory requirements, 232–34 future directions and expectations, 241–43
growth and development of, during 1980s and 1990s, 234–41 personnel involvement in, 231–32 planning and organization, 229 basic principles, 229
curriculum plan, 229–30 renovation, remodeling, or building, 230–31 role of laboratory in, 222–29 Technology Education for Children Council (TECC), 33, 578
future directions of, 581 goals and purposes of, 578–79
influence of, on policy making, 581
major accomplishments of, 579–81
on transportation technology education, 358
Technology Education in Pennsylvania Program Guide K–12 (Pennsylvania), 309–10 Technology education leadership, 503–36
and change, 531–32
common qualities in, 513–19
definition of, 510–13
development models in, 530–31
future for, 529–30
keys to effective, 513
needed research in, 533–35
and need for leaders, 504–5 participation in, 509–10
power of, 505–7
principles of, 527–09
purpose of, 507–9
review of literature on, 525–26
styles of, 519–21
survey of, 523–25
visioning in, 521–22, 532–33
Technology Education News, 608 Technology education profession councils of, 570–81
future of associations in, 591–92 student associations of, 581–88
Technology Education Program of Studies (Virginia), 304–5

Technology education programs, missions and goals of, 407–10
Technology education research, hands-on activities in, 191–95 Technology educators goal of, 135–36
role of, in developing technological literacy courses, 137–38 techniques for developing, 133–35 Technology institutes accreditation activities, 83–85
evolution of, 77–80
professional association activities, 80–83 Technology learning activities (TLAs), 235, 237, 262
Technology preparations (tech-prep) programs, 393–94, 458–60 Technology Student Association (TSA), 584–88 future directions of, 587–88
goals of, 585
and inclusion of manufacturing in curriculum, 329
influence of, on policy making, 587
major accomplishments of, 586–87
mission and purposes of, 585
Technology Systems Handbook (Ohio), 308–9
The Technology Teacher, 545, 602–5 Technology teacher education administering programs in, 32–33
advanced study, associations, and certification in, 33 challenge of, for curriculum integration, 204–5 challenges to programs in, 143 curriculum components of, 30–32 and curriculum integration, 200–203
degree structures and certification, 450–51 external factors influencing, 466–69 in-service, 414–16, 440
and leadership, 509–10
models for, 449
pre-service, 413–14, 439–40 programs in, 466
requirements for, 134–35 solution for, 205–7
for transportation technology education, 362
Technology teachers, know-do-teach needs of, 414, 415
Theoretical model for technology education, 267–69
Theory X, 520
Theory Y, 520
Thought, relationship of action to, 158–60 Thought and action
and assembly line production, 163–64 historical background of division between, 160–64
and Industrial Revolution, 162–63
TIES Magazine, 605–6
Tools
as distinct from machines, 171
relationship between technology and, 155–57
of technologist, 140–41
Total quality management, 504–5
Transactional leadership, 510–11
Transformational leadership, 511
Transportation technology education, 345–62 challenges in, 347–48
characteristics of contemporary curricula in, 352–57
definition of, 350–52
economic impact of, 346
at elementary school level, 357–58 at high school level, 359–61 historical evolution of, 348–50 and Jackson's Mill Industrial Arts Curriculum Theory, 349–50, 351, 362 at middle school level, 358–59 and other technologies, 345–46 taxonomy of, 352–55
teacher education in, 362 technological problem solving in, 356–57 universal systems model of, 355

—U —

Undergraduate technology education. See also Graduate technology education conventional teacher preparation models in, 449–51 degree programs
    description of, 448–49
    development of, 445–47
    new paradigms in, 457–60
  future directions and expectations in, 470–71
  program identification and comparisons, 447–49
  rationale for, 445–46
United Kingdom, Design and Technology Association in, 550 United Nations Education, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) definition of technology in, 481
  involvement of, in technology education, 490–91, 496 recognition of World Council of Associations for Technology Education by, 589–90 Universal Systems Model in communication technology education, 289 in transportation technology education, 355

—V —

Values, and technology, 8–9
Vietnam War era, science, technology, and society programs in, 124 Visioning
  in curriculum development, 402–4 importance of, 521–22
  in leadership, 521–22
  models of, 522
  in technology education, 532–33
Vocational education
  definition of, 35
  employment opportunities in, 51
  evolution of, 40–47
  goals of, 37
  history of, 38
  implementation of, 35
  occupational fields in, 35–36
  principles of, 47
  relationship between technology education and, 408 Vocational Education Act (VEA) (1963), 44–45 amendments of, 45
Vocational Education Association of the Mid-West (VEAMW), 43
Vocational Education Program of Studies (North Carolina), 305–6
Vocational Industrial Clubs of America (VICA), 52
Vocational teacher education, certification in, 50 Vocational trade and industrial teacher education programs administering, 51
  advanced study and associations, 51–52 curriculum components, 50–51

—W —

Wickenden report, 97
World Council of Associations for Technology Education (WOCATE), 491, 567, 588–90
  future directions of, 590
  influence of, on policy making, 589–90
  mission and goals of, 588–89
World of Manufacturing program, 327